The Dispatch.

H Richmond's basiness is pictured in the Dispatch of this morning, it is no less true that her prosperity measures that of the Dispatch. As prospers Richmond so prospers the Disputch ; and the more patronage the public shall bestow upon the Dispatch, tains as his deputies Messrs. P. H. Boisthe more money will we spend in procuring special telegrams, interesting correspondence, and as sorts of news, local and general. Whenever our business shall justify such a step, we shall enlarge the Dispatch ; and we should be pleased if we could issue an eight-page paper every day in the year. We gratefully acknowledge the liberal support which has been extended to us in the past-a liberality never more generous than during the last year-and promise our best efforts to deserve a still more liberal patronage in the future.

The change in the publishing department from a firm to a joint-stock company need not disturb, as it does not concern, anybody outside of the office. Nevertheless, we will take the public into our confidence so far as to say that old men-such as certainly one of the two in the late tirm is-can understand why provision should be made for younger men to take their part in the duties of life.

Wishing "A Happy New Year" to all of our readers, we drop a subject which is no doubt more interesting to us than to them.

An Insuperable Difficulty.

One reason why Governor GARCELON did not wish to submit Mr. MORRILL's questions to the decision of the highest court in Maine, was no doubt found in the fact that the court by deciding them could not have changed the results of the election as already declared officially by the Governor and Council. For instance, let us suppose that the court had decided that no candidate should be counted out because his name was incorrectly spelled. Under that decision, two men would be entitled to sexts in the Legislature who had been counted out by the Governor and Council. The action of the Governor and Council is final, and cannot be reconsidered. That is a matter for the Legislature to attend toa wrong which can only be remedied by that body.

A few years ago a candidate for the House of Delegates in Augusta county, in Virenation to Governor KEMPER, who accepted it, and ordered a new election. But law. The Republicans, he said, are makin certificates of election to the persons who fore, except in two cases—he would throw claim their seats. If he were to do so, his new out Auburn and Augusta.

A number of resolutions were adopted. would represent acts on his part ultra vires. when he granted certificates of election to new ones.

On the whole, we do not see that there is anything that can be done in Maine except | The third condemns partisan utterances to await the action of the two houses of the Legislature themselves. They hold the clew which will enable them to lead the State out of the labysinth of irroadle in which she finds berself.

DANVILLE. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] DECEMBER 31, 1879.

The Dispatch would perhaps desire that this correspondent should not report the doings of people during the Christmas from the egg to the apples." All have survived, and the reporter, if you please, will resume his pencil about other matters.

Quite a number of people went down to the depot yesterday evening to see General Grant, and along with them the Douglas Guards, a colored military company, in full uniform, and led by a band of music.

But the distinguished tramp was not there. In response to an application of Major Sutherlin, of the Danville and New River Railroad Company, for the bonds of the city to the amount of $50,000, which had been subscribed by the Council in obe-dience to a vote of the qualified electors of dience to a vote of the qualified electors of glar in the room, and the excitement of the city, the Council has appointed a committee to inquire into all matters pertaining to its connection with the said company. Pending the inquiries of the committee, he matters are being freely discussed in the city, and as a proof of that discussion Messis. J. E. Schoolneld and C. A. Ballou, be Danville directors, publish an interesting document in justification of the action of the directors in making the contract with the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company, and in selecting the line for the road. minutes of the Council are also being published.

Mr. W. E. Boisseau has resigned the sergeantcy of the city, and Mr. J. D. Blair, formerly treasurer of the county, has been appointed sergeant by Judge Aiken. Mr. Blair has given his official bond, and re-was duly observed by the Masonic lodges of the city. Roman Eagle Lodge gave a sup-per at the Arlington, and after the supper was over speeches were made by Worship-ful Master Brydon, Captain J. T. Averett, Mr. John Martin, Hon. George C. Cabell Major W. T. Sutherlin, and Colonel E. B.

The festival of St. John the Evangelist

On the 26th instant three dwellings-ec cupied respectively by George Grasty, Rebeeca Keen, and Joe Noble, colored peoplewere burned down in the western part of the city. Grasty was insured for $500 by the City Fire-Insurance Company, of Richmond. On the 29th instant the storehouse belonging to Mr. J. P. Rames, on Craghe id street, and occupied by Mr. J. W. Teasley, was burned down and the goods destroyed. Mr. Raines had a policy for $500 on the ouse, and Mr. Teasley for $300 on the goods.

SHOT BY A SOMNAMBULIST. - Boston, December 30.—Mrs. Helen Josephine Ward, living with her daughter, a girl of nine-teen years, at 11 Hamilton Place, was mysteriously shot last night while asleep, and died this morning. From what the daugh, ter says, it is believed that while in a state of somnambulism she shot her mother, who occupied the same bed with ber.

Miss Ward, who shot her melher, Helen J. Ward, last night, was arrested and committed to prison this morning, there being ground for the belief that the act was premeditated and not accidental. There are conflicting statements attributed to Miss Ward, one being that she saw an object moving about the room and fired at it, supposing it to be a burglar. On the contrary, t is stated that she confesses to having shot ber mother while lying in bed beside her, dentally discharged in the excitement of the moment.
